Re: Docket # 03-123

Dear Sirs:

Being disabled with a hearing loss is difficult, however, living in New York State with this disability prevents me from carrying on a comfortable telephone conversation. Captioned telephone service in our area would mean a world of difference to me and so many others. It would increase our quality of living immeasurably.

I support the petition for captioned telephone being mandated by the FCC in New York State and hope that you will too.

Sincerely,

Patricia Prosser
